

Our Privacy Policy

Here is our commitment to your privacy. We will always respect your privacy, and the information you give us. We're not going to sell it, trade it, or abuse any information you submit to us.

What Personal Information do we collect

Visitors may be asked to provide certain personal information when they sign up for our Products or Services including name, address, the type of personal computer being used to access the Services, etc. The personal information collected from Visitors during the registration process (or at any other time) is used primarily to provide a customized experience as you use our Products and Services, and send periodic updates to you. Your information will never be licensed or sold to any third party. We do not use any cookies or any other tracking technology.

Our Commitment to data security

We implement a variety of administrative, managerial, and technical security measures to help protect your personal information. Our Company has various internal control standards which relate specifically to the handling of personal information. These include certain controls to help safeguard the information we collect online. However, while we strive to protect your personal information, you must also take steps to protect your information. We urge you to take every precaution to protect your personal information while you are on the Internet.

Who will it be shared with

We do not share personal information with companies, organizations and individuals outside of our firm.

Revisions to this policy

Our Company reserves the right to revise, amend, or modify this policy, our Terms Of Use & Service agreement, and our other policies and agreements at any time and in any manner, by updating this posting.

If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy or the practices described herein, you may contact us through the contact information provided on this website.

Thanks for reading our privacy policy.
